

Peter Egan manages the Panama City office of Kelley, Kronenberg and is responsible for coverage of our client's needs from Tallahassee to Pensacola. Peter focuses his practice on Workers' Compensation and Liability in the areas of Construction Litigation, Premises Liability and Personal Injury defense.

Our firm has been in business since 1980 and has expanded to serve the needs of our clients with locations strategically placed for coverage of the entire State of Florida. Our offices are located in Miami Lakes, Ft. Lauderdale, West Palm Beach, Ft. Myers, Orlando, Jacksonville and Panama City. Our practice areas include Workers' Compensation Defense, Liability Defense and Employment law and we are solely a defense firm, meaning we represent only the interests of Insurance Carriers and their Insureds as well as the Employer's to whom we have the privilege of serving as counsel.

Peter graduated from the University of Florida with a degree in Business Administration and went on to earn his law degree at St. Thomas University School of Law, located in Miami, Florida, in 2001. While in law school, Peter was served as a Justice on the St. Thomas University School of Law Honor Court, was a Senior Articles Editor for the Law Review and served in the exclusive Miami-Dade County Certified Legal Intern Program with the Dade County State Attorney's office. Peter was admitted to the Florida Bar in 2002, as well as the U.S. District Courts for the Southern and Northern Districts of Florida. He is a member of the Bay County Bar Association, the Workers' Compensation Section of the Florida Bar, the American Bar Association, the Construction Association of South Florida and the Defense Research Institute.

Prior to relocating to the Panhandle, Peter practiced out of the Ft. Lauderdale Office serving the needs of large Carriers and Employers across West Palm, Broward and Miami-Dade Counties.

Before attending law school, Peter was a member of Walt Disney's Imagineering staff, working as a Construction and Project Manager during the construction of Disney's Animal Kingdom in Orlando, Florida. In addition, he has worked as a consultant on numerous projects including the Orlando International Airport expansion and Paradise Island Resort and Casino in the Bahamas.